Question 16

You have decided to help at a sports event that will take place in your town next month.

Write an email to a friend about this.

In your email you should:

- describe the sports event that you are going to help at
- say why you decided to help at the sports event
- explain what you will be doing at the sports event.

Write about 120 to 160 words.

You will receive up to 6 marks for the content of your email, and up to 9 marks for the language used.

Hey Mariam,

I hope you've been doing well. I'm so sorry for not writing sooner. Guess what!

I found out our town is holding a 20km marathon to raise funds for our local charities! They were searching for volunteers to help around, and I stepped up. It'll be taking place around the whole town and tons of local athletes are participating!

You know how inactive I am—I sit around all day and it's taking a toll on my body. So, when I heard about it, I knew it was exactly what I needed to get moving. Plus, my mom is always nagging me about getting my face off the phone and making some friends. Hopefully, I'll meet some nice people my age.

I've received my role last Friday, and I'll be helping with setting up aid stations. I'll also be handing out refreshments to the athletes while cheering them on. I'm already feeling all giddy just thinking about seeing all the excitement and the competitors' spirits up close!

Anyway, I'll write again soon. Stay blessed!

Love,

[your name]

Question 17

You recently bought a copy of a new magazine which is aimed at teenagers. You decide to review the magazine, and you will post the review on your school website.

Here are some comments about the magazine from your friends:

It's quite expensive.

I'd prefer longer articles.

There are some interesting topics.

I love the photos!

Now write a review of the new magazine.

The comments above may give you some ideas, and you should also use some ideas of your own.

Write about 120 to 160 words.

You will receive up to 6 marks for the content of your review, and up to 9 marks for the language used.

Teen Time Magazine: Is It Worth the Hype?

We've all heard the recent buzz about Teen Times. It has become the fastest growing and most trending teenage magazine in recent months. I decided to grab my copy to review here and tell you if it's worth buying.

On the one hand, Teen Times covers a wide variety of topics, ranging from beauty and fashion to mental wellbeing and social interactions. This makes it a well-rounded magazine. What's more, it encompasses fun quizzes, thought-provoking interviews and fascinating visuals that are sure to grip even the most jaded teens.

While the scope of subjects is commendable, some crucial topics are only touched upon and lack in-depth analysis. Alongside this, there's an overemphasis on trends and pop culture, making the magazine prone to getting outdated by new gossip.

Overall, I would highly recommend this magazine to teenagers who want to keep up with the latest trends and stay entertained in an informative way. If you want something more in-depth and detailed though, it's not for you.
